Project Description (short):

MyBit is the world's most advanced IoT investment Ecosystem.

Project Description (medium):

MyBit is the world's most advanced IoT investment Ecosystem. Its two flagship products include a decentralised investment platform (MyBit DApp) and the world's first decentralised IoT asset exchange (MYDAX). Powered by Ethereum.

Project Description (long):

MyBit is the world's most advanced IoT investment Ecosystem. Its two flagship products include a decentralised investment platform (MyBit DApp) and the world's first decentralised IoT asset exchange (MYDAX). Powered by Ethereum.

Founded in Switzerland by industry veterans, MyBit believes that people should be able to follow their passion instead of having to work to survive. By redefining the way people generate income, MyBit strives to democratise financial services so everyone has equal access to investment opportunities. This becomes critical when the future machine economy automates 800 million jobs by 2030 (Mckinsey, 2017) and the average person, whose job is automated, has no ability to participate in this new economy.

MyBit provides an ecosystem for the upcoming 11.1 Trillion dollar IoT industry (Forbes, 2017), with the belief that everyone should have an equal opportunity to participate in this revolution.

Token Distribution Plan:

102,000,000 Tokens were distributed during the TokenSale which ended in August 2017 where 10,044 ETH were contributed. Of the remaining 78,000,000 tokens, 10,000,000 are allocated to our decentralised development fund (DDF) enabling anyone to profit from contributing to the network (will be launched August 1 2018), and the remaining 68,000,000 will slowly be distributed to the DDF and/or private offerings to raise additional capital over the next several years.
